The KL Scholarship is awarded to women who desire to further their education, demonstrate characteristics that include financial need, desire to improve their life and other deserving qualities as may be determined by the KL Scholarship Committee. Applicants must complete the application and return it by the deadline to be eligible. Maximum scholarship is $1,500 and are paid directly to the institution based on actual expenses (may include books and fees). If a recipient is unable to use all or any part of the scholarship, the monies awarded may be presented to another applicant/recipient. Applications will be reviewed and recipients will be notified by the Committee. Availability of funds and a scholarship award is not guaranteed. All information provided by applicant will be kept confidential by the Committee.

The Kathee Livengood Scholarship Fund is a division of the
